

English as an Additional Language

Year 11 at Walford
Her Pathway

English as an Additional Language is designed for students for whom English is a second language or an additional language or dialect and who fulfil the eligibility criteria. You will focus on the development of both written and oral communication skills with a focus on creative communication and comprehension of language, and the analysis and application of language features and conventions.

Stage 1
2 Semesters / 10
Credits each

 Engage Skills	 Extend Knowledge	 Enrich Experiences
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Analysis of relationships between purpose, audience, and context, and how these influence texts and their meaning • Identifying ways in which ideas and perspectives are represented in texts • Analysis of how language and stylistic features and conventions are used to convey ideas and perspectives in texts • Creating oral, written, and/or multimodal texts for particular purposes, audiences, and contexts • Identifying and analysing intertextual connections • Applying knowledge and understanding of accurate spelling, punctuation, syntax, and conventions 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Exposition • Persuasive writing • Oral presentations • Multi-modal presentations • Critical perspectives and bias in writing • Contemporary literary forms including: novels, poetry, film, drama, writing for publication • Writers' statements 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Annual Walford Literary festival • Drama performance excursion • Livingstone prize • Mabel Jewell prize • Creative writing

 Assessments/Outcomes	 Pathways
Assessments/Outcomes: responding to texts, creating texts, extended language study	Learning Pathways: SACE Stage 2 English as an Additional Language