

Chinese (Background)

Year 10 at Walford

Her Way

You will start to acquire the essential skills and knowledge for Stage 1 and 2 Background Chinese. You will learn about, research and analyse contemporary Chinese social issues including international students, multiculturalism, generation gap and technology. You will have the opportunity to watch and read selected films and novels. You will also participate in a range of interactive activities such as interviewing students from different backgrounds, making video presentations and podcasts and experiencing a range of excursions and cultural activities. Your comprehension and writing skills will also be developed through learning about literary features and techniques.
